Maturity is Submitting to each other, not Judging

Pastor Scott Hill

(James 4:1-12)

Big Idea: Let's be helpers for each other, not judges. (Eph. 5:21)

Worldliness undermines submission (1-6)

The inner battle of covetousness (1)

The outer battle of arguing (2)

The motive of personal pleasure (3)

God is jealous for our affection (4-5)

The steps toward being submissive (6-10)

1. It is all of God's grace so put on His armor (6, Eph. 6:10-11)
2. We must resist the devil in faith (7, 1Peter 5:8-9)
3. Take time to get close to God (8a)
4. Strive for purity in heart, mind & hands (8b)
5. Face the pain of personal failure (9, Ps. 32:3-9)
6. Allow God to be God! (10)

The steps toward being Judgmental (11-12)

1. Speak against a believer (11a)
2. Exalt ourselves rather than submit to one another (Eph. 5:21)
3. Deny that slander is disobedience itself (Eph. 4:31-32)
4. Determine which laws are valid (11b)
5. Lose sight of the One who can save or destroy us (12)

The decision to wait for God's judgment (1Cor. 4:3-5)

We can't judge ourselves (1Cor. 4:3)

The Lord will judge us (1Cor. 4:4-5)

Do you have your lawyer for the day of judgment? (1John 2:1-2)

Personal Application: I will go through the check list of the steps toward being submissive to insure I am surrendered to God and submitted to serve others.
